FREQUENTLY asked questions

CAN I BRING A GUEST?

Absolutely! I never mind if people hang out with us! If they want to get in photos that's totally cool with me and it is included! I also love when your pups come too hehe... I allow as many guests as you want, as long as you are in the photo too! But - If they also want individuals then check out the 'Group Session' package!

CAN WE GO TO A FEW LOCATIONS/ CAN I CHANGE MY OUTFIT?

So - I charge differently than most for photos, as I am only charging you for time! Within that time we can do whatever you want! I have suggestions on what will fit within your time frame, but in the end it is your call!

WHEN CAN I EXPECT MY PHOTOS?

My typical turn around is 10-20 business days, but it can be more or less depending on my workload. It will never be more than 30 days after your session for your photos and that is guaranteed. I promise a minimum of 60 edited photos per hour, but it is often more than that! All photos will be delivered through a downloadable digital gallery!

WHAT IS THE RESCHEDULING POLICY?

Under extenuating circumstances or due to harsh weather, I will reschedule you to the next available time slot I have! All payments made to me are non-refundable under any circumstance so cancellations will result in a loss of deposit.

TIPS & tricks

PROPS!

Of course you will need a cap as you are graduating, and a gown really tops off the look! If yours didn't come in yet - no problem! I have a black FSU (undergraduate) gown (fit for someone who is 5' 2") available! I also have a black, garnet and navy cap with a plain gold tassel available as well! No rush about letting me know until the day of your session! (I do not have a stole available) And I know most of you love popping some champagne, and I suggest bringing at least 2 bottles as you may not get the shot the first try or may want to pop it at two locations!

PLAN YOUR DAY!

Get excited! This is your big day! Make sure your clothes are pressed for any wrinkles and you have everything laid out you want to bring! Give me a heads up of your perfect itinerary and we can coordinate a session that is best for you! Bring some water and your biggest smile and we can capture this moment together!
